

Musical Theatre Intensive Grades 3-5

Calling all 3rd to 5th grade performers! Are you ready to jump into acting, singing, and dancing? This class will offer a first hand experience in the fundamentals of musical theatre. The class will be taught by performer/writer Michael Potsic, who has been seen on the stages of The Paramount, Theatre At The Center, and The Second City. With his years of performance experience and knowledge, he will guide students as they build the technique, the drive, and the confidence that is necessary to be successful in musical theatre. Students will focus on skill-building in acting, singing, and dancing. The class will culminate in a final showcase that displays all of their hard work.

Register online at www.elmhurstchildrenstheatre.com. Participation fee is $110. Make checks payable to Elmhurst Children's Theatre and bring payment on the first night of class.

If you have any questions, please contact the Class Coordinators, Michelle Walker mwalker@elmhurstchildrenstheatre.com or Michele LoConte mloconte@elmhurstchildrenstheatre.com.
